Hi everyone! I've just returned from the London Games Festival. There were over 50 exciting games to try out there. My favourite one was Lineage Eternal. It was my first time playing it. It's a role-playing game that you play online. It's set in a fantasy world a long time ago and it has many different characters including elves, dragons, knights, princes and magicians. I chose to play as a dragon! People and creatures fight each other for power and money, and attack villages and castles. I know I won't be able to stop playing this game now! Has anyone else tried it?

Hi Harry! Yes, I've tried Lineage Eternal, but it had a bit too much fighting for me! Have you tried Life is Strange? I played it at a games festival last year and I was immediately hooked. Basically, it's a problem-solving adventure game which is set in a high school in present-day America. Max Caulfield is a teenage student who has an amazing gift: she can travel back in time! This means that she gets a second chance to fix things that have gone wrong in her and other people's lives. It's really interesting. Max and her best friend Chloe Price are the main characters and we get to know several of her classmates, too. I've played it for around a year, but I'm still not tired of it. Try it yourself and let me know what you think!
