KEEPER FOR A DAY

Would you like to be a zookeeper for a day? Well, at ZSL (Zoological Society London) London Zoo, UK you can join the 'Keeper for a Day' programme and do just that! Your day as a zookeeper at ZSL London Zoo begins in the morning and lasts between seven and eight hours. You'll be busy taking care of a group of the zoo's animals. You will help the zookeeper prepare healthy meals for the animals and also help them clean the animal's homes.

You'll join the zookeeper for the whole day as they go about their other duties, including watching the animals to study their health and behaviour. You will also be able to meet some of the animals and play with them. Spending the day as a zookeeper is a great way to learn about some of your favourite animals. If you're really lucky, you might even get to look after a baby animal! There are lots of young animals at the zoo that are difficult to look after.

Being a zookeeper for the day is hard work, but you do get lots of breaks and time to sit and eat a delicious lunch. At the end of the day, you'll get a present to take home and show your friends and family. Your day as a keeper at ZSL London Zoo is one that you'll never forget!

- 1 You need to pay to be a 'Keeper for a Day'.
- 2 You won't be working alone.
- 3 Your day as a zookeeper will involve a lot of duties.
- 4 Everyone gets to take care of baby animals.
- 5 Only the best zookeeper receives a present at the end of the day.
